Information Disclosure Statement

1. The prior art documents submitted by applicant in the Information Disclosure Statement filed on 4/15/2004 have all been considered and made of record (note the attached copy of form PTO – 1449).

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1 – 6 and 8 – 96 are allowed.
3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art taken either singularly or in a combination fails to anticipate or fairly suggest the limitations of the independent claims, in such a manner that a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102 or 103 would be proper. The prior art fails to teach a combination of all the claimed features as presented in independent claims 1, 10, 11, 14, 18, 20 and 25, for example which include a the light transmissive element having an electrically conducting coating and a binder phase having a first index of refraction and the light transmissive element having a second index of refraction, the second index of refraction being substantially equal to the first index of refraction (claim 1); and the light transmissive having a second surface and the second surface comprising a reflecting coating for internal reflection of light towards the nonemissive electro-optic display medium (claim 10); and a substantially transparent substrate disposed between the light transmissive element and the nonemissive electro-optic display medium (claim 11); and a second component having a second surface and the second surface mates with the first surface so that the first component and the second component form a lens at the interface therebetween for facilitating substantially uniform illumination of the nonemissive electro-optic medium (claim 14); and a nonemissive electro – optic display medium and a reflector for directing from the light source through the light transmissive element and the reflector substantially uniform illumination of the nonemissive electro-optic display medium (claim 25) (Note : claim 25 allowed previous office action).
